Twitter is an easy way to support legislation and engage with lawmakers.

Twitter is an online social network to send text-based messages in 280 characters, known as “tweets.”

An introduction:

- Use the @ sign before a lawmaker’s twitter handle will “tag” and notify the lawmaker of your tweet.
- Place a period before the @ sign if it is the first word in the tweet, for example: .@SenMarkey
- Hashtags (#) group or link posts together to a specific topic.

#CogswellMactAct Twitter Blast

Save the date!

The Alice Cogswell and Anne Sullivan Macy Act (H.R. 1959 and S. 813) is continuing to gain new Congressional cosponsors, and we need to keep the momentum going! During the week of June 27-July 1 we will hold a #CogswellMacyAct Twitter Blast and we hope you will participate.

You will be contacting current sponsors and cosponsors to thank them, and contacting members who have not yet signed on. As constituents, your messages to your Congressional representatives is powerful. We will send you all the tools and information you need.

If you have a Twitter account, like the new @CogswellMacyAct Twitter page!

Look for information leading up to June 27-July 1, and get your thumbs ready!

Step 6: Prefer the phone? Here's what to do!

- Call the Congressional Switchboard (202) 224-3121 to be connected to your Representative's or Senator(s)' office. You will likely talk to a staff member in the office.
- Tell them your name and that you are a constituent.
- If the Representative or Senator is a sponsor/co-sponsor say "thank you for the support!"
- If not, tell the staff you hope that the Representative or Senator will support the Cogswell-Macy Act, and ask for their position on this legislation.

Script for calling your Representative's office (before you call: replace yellow highlights with your information)

Hello. My name is _____ and I'm a resident of _____ (city), _____ (state). I'm calling to ask Representative _____ (name of Representative) to co-sponsor the Cogswell-Macy Act – H.R. 1959. I support this bill because it will improve access to important and necessary education and services for children who are blind or visually impaired, deaf or hard of hearing, or deafblind. I am hoping I can count on Representative _____'s support. Please let me know (his or her) position on this bill.

Script for calling your Senator's office (before you call: replace yellow highlights with your information)

Hello. My name is _____ and I'm a resident of _____ (city), _____ (state). I'm calling to ask Senator _____ (name of Senator) to cosponsor the Cogswell-Macy Act, bipartisan legislation which was introduced in the Senate as S. 813. I support this bill because it will improve access to important and necessary education and services for children who are blind or visually impaired, deaf or hard of hearing, or deafblind. I am hoping I can count on Senator _____'s support. Please let me know (his or her) position on this bill."

If you leave a voicemail message, provide your phone number or email address so that the office can get back to you.
